I loved you the most I would've done anything to make you happy But you treated me like a ghost I tried so hard to make you happy All I got back was remorse The more I tried The more I seemed to push you away I just wanted you to be happy What did I do wrong? Please be happy Why are you crying? What did I do? Just please be happy I love you I said stop crying! Are you happy now? Your face is bruised I'm sorry Please stop crying I just want you to be happy come give me a hug there, better now? You feel so good in my arms Let's go to sleep now Goodnight sweetheart I love you
