Problems solved at the bottom of the cup?

Fully dressed in make up

Barely dressed in clothes.

When will you wake up?

And know there's more to life than a pose

Tequila shots after a break up,

Man left you for whores.

The road to success is bumpy

And full of potholes

Don't waste your life worrying

About filters and photos

There is more to lifestyle

Than hairstyle.

You brag about cutting branches

And chasing after that money tree

While your friends build branches

And extend their family trees.

Now you find yourself at a bar,

You drink to forget

Then you drink to remember how you lost it

Then you drink to forget again

Because you are a bad bitch that lost it
