Love, caring, unselfishness

It is vaster than the open plains It is higher than the mountain peaks It is deeper than the oceans It is warmer than the sun. It is stronger than a mighty bull It is softer than a kitten It is tender as a child's embrace It gives on quarter It lifts you when you are down It tells you that you matter It defends you against yourself It shows you that you are special It is given without reservation It stays as long as it takes It cradles your heart It tends your wounds It guides you on your path Where ever that might lead Then with a lonely a tear It sets you free.
