perverse thoughts lurk behind these eyes of blue reflections from the past bound in a darkened hue cloaked in a cape of fire horns topping my head a sibling of satan fallen angel dressed in red demented contemplations induce lurid fantasies driving sensations faraway beyond life's realities breaking bonds of guilt not easy to undo perversities have to die cycle can't continue abuse in any form goes against natures law responsibilities need taken obliterate this human flaw mind take command culpability do correct resurrect reality heart and soul reconnect allow others to live never take life away give only love natures law obey treat all with respect yourself too forgive tolerate don't sway acceptance always give don't allow pessimism goodness is still alive though some try to steal be strong survive allow yourself to heal collectively we can weather extend your hand to all we're in this life together
