Come take my hand
A walk we will take
I will tell a story
Of a love so true
We were both caught off guard
When you came asking questions
You left with my heart
The connections was so great no words were needed
I felt your concern in your hesitation
The love in your words
Miles can not separate us
Troubles can not break the ties
I am your girl
You are my man
This we both know
No matter what is told
True love found its way
One cold winter day
When you came for questions
You left with my heart
