Over the sea Awaits his love Steadfast and unchanging Her word of loyalty A comfort to him Through the darkest of times A Northern Star One fixed point throughout the instability Over the sea Awaits his hope The promise of a new love and a new life Ever present and patient Whispered promises of fidelity and loyalty Through the rugged landscape And the elemental mistress that is the water Lays the promise of her warm embrace Over the sea Awaits his muse The person who gets it and understands him Intelligent and determined Poems and classical excerpts shared As he gently falls off to sleep For her wit alone Is enough to keep him Over the sea Awaits his Danae Waiting for the golden light of her Zeus And the feeling of his lips on hers A touch in the darkness thousands of miles away The simple promise of only herself To show him her true colours And bare her naked soul Over the sea Awaits his fair maiden Whose true heart he would know amongst a thousand others Whose true heart he would hope to win And keep all for himself To ravish and then worship her naked body and soul To pick a flower And give thanks at her temple Over the sea Is the Island Princess The one who can see his true self The one who can tame the lion Heal his pride and past wounds Praise his mind, body and soul As he would praise hers When they come together as one Over the sea They await each other She is his And he is hers
