We are so impotent in love sometimes. Sometimes we meet the right person at the wrong time.....

I have to restrain myself, not to let you see me in tears.

I pretend to ignore you.

Try to stop thinking of you.

Only blame myself that I have no title to love you.

Looking at you, I am so helplessbut.

Just let you vanish into the galaxy.

The heartbreak makes me breathless as I find no trace of you.

I shall sense your tenderness never again.

I find no reason for being strong.

Please tell me where the galaxy is!

Where does it end?

Praying to the galaxy, let you know that I do love you so!

This time, this life!

Next time, next life!

And forever lives!

We are so impotent in love sometimes.

Sometimes we meet the right person at the wrong time.

Sometimes we meet the wrong person at the wrong time.

Sometimes we fall in love with the one,

we just have no title to move a step further.

It is truly a regret!
