Make it stop! Everything is closing in Where do I go? The box is getting smaller No where to turn The voices keep whispering The bickering never stops! No one wants to take the blame The same thing over and over No matter what I do In a circle it goes Faster and faster Where do I turn? I look to my left, then to my right I hide beneath the counter I hear giggles coming around the corner I have no where to go I'm trapped! My boys shout, "Your it!"
