Him again

Will I ever feel your arms around me again? Feel your lips on mine. Stare into your beautiful blue eyes and laugh at your silly jokes. I miss the way you held me. So close I couldn't breath. The way your eyes smile when you are happy. Will I ever feel you touch my skin in such a way that you make me melt again?: Just to sit next to you and cuddle close would be a dream come true. I never met a real manuntil I met you. A man that wanted to make all my dreams come true. Will I ever feel you hold my hand when I am sad and scared or just because? My heart breaks daily because I have lost you, wondering, will I ever be, again, with you.? Will I ever be allowed to make right, what was done wrong? 7/17/2014 For Jerry Bender my one true love
